

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY ULTIMATE

WASHINGTON, D.C.

MEN'S CATHOLIC JUSTICE

In 2009, Catholic Justice made its first appearance at the Mid-Atlantic Conference. Qualifying again in 2010 and 2011 amongst the likes of traditional regional and national powerhouses, Delaware and George Washington, Georgetown's team has thoroughly established their presence as one of the dominant teams in the Mid-Atlantic Conference. Catholic Justice (A Team) and Black Squirrels (B Team) are spirited and dedicated teams that practice 3-4 times per week year round. Come play for Georgetown as we aim for the upper ranks of the Colonial Conference and Atlantic Region!

The Georgetown Mixed team, Huckin' Justice, poses for a photo during spring break following their victory in the championship game of the High Tide Session I mixed tournament.

WOMEN'S HUCKIN' FOYAS

The Georgetown Women's ultimate team came together in 2003 and since then has proven to be one of the top teams in the Colonial Section and a consistent qualifier for the Atlantic Coast Regional tournament. Huckin' Foyas is a young team full of potential. We are focused on long-term team development and growth of the women's ultimate program at Georgetown. With our sights set on nationals, the next few years are sure to be exciting!

For more info, please check out our websites: Mens': <http://georgetown-ultimate.com/Index.aspx>

Women's: <http://www1.freewebs.com/gufrisbee/>

Or email our captains: Men's: Jacob Andersen (petergmetzger@gmail.com) and Matt Kerrigan (scott.lensing@gmail.com)

Women's: Alisha Kramer (ask54@georgetown.edu) and Sue Marie Breden (suemariebreden@gmail.com)